MFD VOLUNTEERS & ASSOCIATES: Kris Mcnall, Todd Reeves

SDAO CONSULTANT: John Stein

Consultant Stein opened the session at 9:15 a.m. Continuing with the priority planning process that was begun last month, he asked those assembled to list their SWOT (Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, Threats) opinions regarding MFD and to write them down on large sheets of paper on the wall.

Lunch was provided at 11:45 and the meeting resumed at 12:20.

Based on the lists created in the morning, Stein asked the group to select four or five priorities for MFD. The four chosen are:

- “Re-boot” buy-in by everyone in the organization
- Volunteer recruitment and retention
- Complete short-term plan
- Improve organizational safety

It was agreed by consensus that at the June 22 Special Meeting the steps necessary to accomplish these priorities will be decided upon, as well as dates for when they will be completed.

Meeting adjourned at 2:23 p.m.
